Indiana Stal te Sentinel.

VOL XXIII-NO. 43,

INDIANAPOLIS, TUESDAY, MAY 2%, 1874

THE JUNE RALLY.

A MYRIAD MUSTER. TIPPECANOE COUNTY AROUSED.

and A STIRRING CALL-THE ARMY IN LINE. The following address with signatures attached, appears in the Larayette papers:

When the questions upon which political parties are formed are solved by the voice of the people, or by the lapse of time, the usefulness of such parties are at an end, and they become henceforth the tool of the politician and the demagogue, wherewith to fleece and defraud the people. Such is the case with the parties of our country to-day. There are no parties of our country to-day. There are no living issues between them, and corruption is succeeding to offices of trust and places of power, and the rights and interests of the people are trampled under foot. We think the time has come for us to bury the dead issues of the past out of sight—to cease a party strife that no longer represents a difference of opinion—and to address surselves to the nobler task of redressing the grievances of the people—reforming the abuses that have crept into our government—and putting good and trustworthy men in office, regardless of past political differences. And especially do we think it is time for the people to unite together to protect their vast interests against the afforts of those who would swellow them up. We therefore invite the farmer and other industrial classes and all who agree with us in these sentiments to meet at the places of holding elections in the several townships, on Saturday, the 23d day of May, at 2 o'cleck P. M., to elect delegates to the county convention, to be held at the court house, in the city of Lafayette, on Saturday, the 30th stay eity of Lafavette, on Saturday, the 30th day of May, at 10 o'clock A. M., to nominate can-didates for the various offices to be filled at the coming election, said delegates to be chosen as follows: Two from each township, and six from the city of Latayette, to be chosen from among those who are fully identified with this movement: Thos. Bartholome James Moore, K. C. Bartholomew. James Prass, R. Gladden, James Ball, J. H. Coyle, Thomas Owen, M. Ball, H. B. Williamson, T. B. Cashey,

J. W. Dooley,
Thomas Ball,
James Wooly,
John Gormley,
Thomas Hain,
S.C. VanValkenberg,
John R. Smith, Henry Martin, J. Goldsberry, W. A. Henagar, L. M. Henderson James Cook, W. Klepinger, H. Hersh, J. E. Emerson, I. R. Pierce, W. H. Sentmyer, A. Morebouse, R. C. Pierce, E. G. Yeager. W. W. Graves, D. Baker, S. A. Jamison, Joseph Rawles, A.C. Taylor, E. L. 11 ohn P. Sheridan, Jethro Newill, J. C. Smith, S. H. Balley, J. W. Davidson, David Kerr, Q. C. East, M. W. Borum, F. C. Borum, C. J. Borum, N. Cook, John Hiatt, George C. Price, Stephen Jones, Gus: Anderson, Anson Dyson. J. R. Rifenberick, James Hawkins, W. M. Blackstock A. Earl, B. R. But.s, Emmart, Q. W. Hull, George Stover, John Smith,
W. W. McDonald,
Jessie River,
Robnert Carter,
W. D. Reed, James H. Emmart, John Miller. S. B. Lutz, A. Henderson, H. C. Downing, S. G. Yeager, J. A. Henderson, Wilbert Wilson, Edwin Taylor, F. Aholtz, . C. ash, V. H. Hickman Lames M. Henders H. H. Oilar, D. C. Jones, Wm. G. Martin, A. blayback, H. H. Howard, F. Erdman, John Martin, John Brutus, James Tu ner, Alexander Jones, George Neibergal James Jones, John F. Hall, Henry Crile, John L. Epperson, E. Fryback, Benjamin Martin, E. S. Boland, Alexander Kiser, Cnarles Jones, r. J. Mikels, W. H. Binns, C Griggs, Thomas Nolen, John Hain, F. Achison, R. Oilai Daniel Hicks. H. M. Ritchey, James T. Moore, J. M. Gay, Amos Weich, William Stover, Robert Burtin, r. P. Bunnell, T. P. Bunnell,
Joseph G. Cheesma
Thomas O'Brien,
A. Raub,
Josiah Martin.
N. Englet,
O. Spitznagle,
A. B. McLain.
D. S. Smith,
William Granam,
J. H. Kiser,
Peter Needham,
Freeman Shepher Henry Cappy, James Morris, A. d. Graig, George W. Mikel, D. A. Chapman, Moses R. Binns, W. W. Laffin, R. F. Bridgman, reeman Shepherd. V. D. Atkins, J. B. Andrews, Jame: Price, Albert Osburn, Robert Buck, M. Ward, Jacob Smith,
Benjamin Ray,
Jarvis Newton,
John P. Anderson,
John Heffner,
E. J. Johnson,
A. M. Baum,
James A. Hogan,
W. F. Pierres L. Newton, Jacob Lowe V. E. Pierce, lames McGovern Patrick Tracy, Parton Alexander, Parlon Alexa
J. E. Brown,
Morris Peak,
J. G. Gardner,
W. Gladden,
J. W. Crist,
Silas Long,
Harvey Birch,
Dr. Jones,
J. P. Hays,
J. M. Johnson, ylvester Bryant, F. Cartmill, Villiam Campbell Villiam Campbell
I. W. Calvert,
John Long,
W. H. Ogden,
Ed. Graves,
Ed. Norton,
D. G. Smith,
Harvey Kinney,
Abe. Long,
Charley Plesee,
G. A. Ray,
A. B. MeMillan,
Joseph/Smith, Marcus Anson, James Connett, Benj. Graves, Benj. Graves.
James Bryan.
D. W. Probasco,
John Montgomer,
John Boweis,
G. W. Odell,
Emmet Baiss.
J. W. Jameson, Jr.,
Wm. R. Eilis, Joseph Smith,
John Insley,
James Campbell,
S. C. Castor,
Joseph Bates,
Joseph Spaulding,
Wm. Hawkins, A.C. Barns, F. Head, ir., P. Wendelbun, P. Feel), H. Fuget, Jacob Johnson, J. Culver, Alee Jennings,
J. Heckethorn,
Billy Barnnard,
P. E. Kellogg,
John Souders,
W. F. Smith, ienry Rakestraw D. Shoemaker, J. C. Gapen, G. W. B. McCutel S. S. Bincker, S. Waddell, Joseph Waddell, Cameli Waddell, J. F. Pierce, Jonn Sentmyer, Ed. Payne, Lames Sheets, James Sheets,
John Thomas,
O. S. Eiston,
John Gross,
John Clogg,
L. D. Redgway,
John R. Smith,
Joseph Kemble,
T. B. Smith,
W. H. Cranfill,
D. C. Beaver. Harman Stingley W. Robinson, W. Dunain, G. W. Dungin,
P. A. Cook,
James Stingley,
Thomas Dunfee
W. Stewart,
J. N. Johnson,
E. G. Smiley,
James Smiley,
O. S. Morehouse B. Morebo J. Ray, H. Hoon,
M. Rawles,
J. W. Jamison,
Jackson Castor,
Charles Castor,
F. R. Weaver,
N. J. Stingley,
John Cartmill,
S. H. Huffman,
John Routh,
A. Leng,
Jasper Rabb,
James M. Bryan,
George W. Graves,
O. J. Martin,
David Culver,
Marion Werd,
Thomas D. Abbett,
George Rowe, Jesse Meharry, John Black, John Trusler, James T. Wallace, J. A. Ainett, S. McDall, John Smith, Theo. Harrison, M. S. Summers, Anthony Stingley, George Pierce, George W. Sheets, William Culver,

John Deardoff,
W. W. Smith,
J. P. Reanett,
J. B. Hudson,
S. C. Johnson,
James Matlack,
William S. Doty,
Levi J. Hain,
William B. Miller,
William Williams,
B. Wheeler,
James Francis Henry Kr.ch,
James Strain,
P. R. Keminger,
Nelson Lutz,
William Bennett,
Benjamin Bayle,
James Vencill, James Vencili, Ewing Smiley Jesse McKinsey, William Murphy, David Meharry, B. Wheeler, James Francis, Wood Shephard, W. C. Davisson, W. L. C. Wheeler, James M. Francis Thornell, B. Friderick, W. L. Conover, C. H. Ellis, Samuel Croscup C. M. Terry. Isaac C. Davis, Andrew Magover A. Hawkins, John Endicot, James W. Johnso A. L. Sheridan, A. J. Cadwallader, A. Teague, John Munson, William E. Tilt, E. R. Kinney, S. J. Hall, C. Whitehead, John Boop, John Booles, I. C. Whitehead,
W. W. Steeley,
R. B. Weich,
J. N. Steely,
C. K. Wilson,
B. F. Ferguson,
Samuel Becker,
W. Mahan,
S. D. Barnard,
S. T. Bailey,
Thomas P. Smith Simon Walters,
Simon Walters,
Alfred Hoffman,
M. E. Sherry,
Wm. M. Remings
Joseph Beavens,
G. W. Miller,
S. Devaux,
Miles Gardner,
W. H. Shearer,

Why was our wants with most

W. H. Shearer, Thomas J. Barnes. CLARK COUNTY.

INDEPENDENT CALL. The Clark County Record publishes a call with a few of the names which it might have had. This shows that party cohesion is gone out of Clark, The call is this : Believing that none but honest, sober and competent persons should be placed in public trusts, and that county officers especially should be selected solely in consideration of their integrity and fitness for place, and realizing the fact that these desirable ends on Saturday, the 30th day of May, 1874, fer the purpose of nominating candidates for ratification of the eting on the 30th C. S. Hawes, Phii M. Dalty, H. C. Jackson, W. F. Lee, G. M. Bottorff, Sr. G. W. Baldock,

A Sagebiel, Philip Hartman, Lewis McCoy, Elisha Miller, W. W. Smith,

H. H. Combs,

J. S. Coombs, J. D. Liston,

Milton Payne, Squire Mc right, R. B. Hamilton,

W. Manaugh,

George Giltner, Thomas West, G. W. Tucker, J. I. Hammond, Isaac Simmonto

Samuel Berry,

G. F. Sage,
N. W. Smith,
Henry Gilton,
H. B. Watkins,
D. G. Watkins,
W. A. Sage,
S. C. Consley,
L. A. Giltner,
H. P. West,
Charlie McCright,
Robert Vesselrad,

Jasper Wood, Wm. Suthern, John Smith,

Alexander Wilson. Chomas Tulley,

David Morgan, jr.,

Coli. Zeitvogel, Bennett Adkins,

Henry Jackson, Albert Warman John McCory,

Phillip McCory, Harrison Miller

Harrison Miller,
John Lee,
John T. Kelley,
F. E. Kelley,
G. W. Weller,
Eli R. Johnson,
John Stone,
W. P. Batts,
Henry Francy,
Banjel Thomas,
M. M. McCory,
John Mallory

John Mallory, Thomas H. Butts J. T. Jackson. Addison Johnson

Tyler Jackson, D. H. Warman,

Philip Miller, John Benfield

Joseph C. Wago A. J. Thomas, J. B. Jackson, D. D. Jackson, W. S. Ward,

W. Stone, Frank Rank, Nick Ebringer, Max Zahner,

P Hokenbruch Martin Meier,

Jacob Engel, John Schneider Anton Kraus, V. Schindler, datthias Engel,

J Y. Oiliges, Nicholas Robbers Christian schmid Cassimer Koelme Anthony Koehn,

J. H. Meyer,
Michael Franer,
I. T. Porter,
J. M. Tilford,
C. B. Robertson,
E. J. Porter,
J. H. Godtker,
J. Rosenburger,
J. A. Kimbrel,
J. A. Kimbrel,
J. M. Hellett.
Egneachus Hober,
German Tripple,
Thomas Kearn,
Joseph Hollrah,
George Tieman,
H. C. Whitson,
Balentine Missey,
Peter Missey,
Peter Missey,
Peter Missey,
John McKinley,
Wm. McKinley,
James Whitson,
C. Huhart,
G. W. McKinley,

Hubart, W. McKinley,

William McKinley,

Dennis Willey, James Howard,

G. G. Hises, J. P. Nicholson, John Prather,

Wm. Whalen, J. G. Crawford,

Jacob Fisher, Jacob Walker,

Wm. Kahl, P. J. Ash. Henry Hamburgher,

Abraham Bottorff. A. M. Kirkpatrick,

J. E. Oldham, N. G. Felmet, N. G. Felmet,
J. C. Drummond
I. W. Berry,
W. H. Berry,
N. M. Bey,
I. S. Rodgers,
I. Banud,
Ioslah Daily,
W. G. Hatch,
W. L. Hughes,
I. W. Rice,
D. Clemmons,
Editsler. W. S. Dean, Joseph Shamban A. J. Massena, H. N. Hammond, Vm. Keily, .A. Allen, jr., i.P. Baird, V. M. Blunk, .W. Graves, .H. Lowden, Wm. Davis, Jacob Boyer, J. T. Hamilto omas Giltner, A. Giltner, John Byer, J. C. Davis, Dilks, H. C Houneus, Kuntz Jone Uhlrich, Valentine Strobel hn Jinkins, Leo Redinger, T. W. Huckleberry, Wan, Wright, Alvis Ball, Theo. Sage olel, John McCurdy, Samuel Alien, S. W. Swartz, Martin Koerner, Charles Allen' Charles Allen
Joseph Ehringer.
Fred Popp,
Joseph Koernor,
Timothy Mann,
Jackson Adkins,
Fred Hanshon,
Joseph Adam.
Sylvester Ward,
Thomas Scott,
Thomas Morgan,
J. A. Robertson. Thomas Morgan,
I. A. Robertson,
Thomas Adkins,
Owen Shoemaker,
Luman Snider,
M. S. Wilson,
Luman Merrill,
Luman Peeier,
Peter Saltk eid, A. Shumaker, P. Ward, I. L. Carnes, J. F. Merrid, John Scheidt, John Slider, Wm. Riggle, J. S. Saltkeld, C. P. Whalen, Jr., C. P. Whalen, Jr.,
Oliver Crone,
C. P. Whalen, Sr.,
A. Hargensheime,
Frank Rasset,
Wm. Whalen,
Peter Biesel,
B. Morgan,
John Man,
M. M. Meeks,
W. P. McGuire,
Reuben McDaniel,
S. C. Ward.
E. R. P. Winter,
David Wilson,
L. P. King,
Ira W. Wilson;
D. A. Burns,
J. P. Reynolds,
J. N. Snider,
Henry Man,
A. Chriswell,
James Connell, Anthony Koehn,
John Flennry,
Sebastian Popp,
John Koerner,
Wash Jenkins,
D. Morgan, Sr.
Martin Schudne
George Riggle,
Joseph Zipi,
Frank Hurle,
J. H. Meyer,

James Connell,
John Ankly,
James McKinley,
Richard McGill,
T. R. McKinley,
Samuel McKinley,
John Littell,
Thomas Bell,
Wm. McKinley,
Alex, Longagere,

Alex. Longaere, John Sparks, Z. Nieko son, T. S. Ransom, F. M. Brock,

Franklin Tarte T. S. Carter, J. K. Vance, H. D. Dow, R. L. Martin, A. Q. Stantlefo A. J. Gray, S. G. Akers, R. Smitt.

John McKinley, J. D. Huro, Franklin Tartarat,

W. H. Martin,
James Doty,
F. E. Lent,
N. W. Parrish,
James Buck,
J. Harte.
George Humbert,
J. H. Winship,
John M. Boggs,

Sylvester Taylor, I. B. Lutz, Perry Buck,

corge Rowe, John J. Parker, A. S. Blosser, W. W. Cummings

homas Jones.

Q. W. Blackstock

A NEW LIGHT. THE FARMER'S JOURNAL

TAKES A BAND.

WHAT THE MOVEMENT IMPLIES SWEEPIN CHANGES. The Indianapolis Farmer of this week clares for the reform movement in th' manly way: The patrons of husbandry as an order, were in no way responsible for the call, and the Indiana Parmer was oppose to the time and manner of its is ue, and we have used our influence to disabase the publie mind of the impression that the order was responsible for it. There is no denying the fact that there is wide-spread dissatisfaction with both of the great parties of the ecuntry, and a deep, settled conviction that they cannot be purified and made useful. The veto of the currency bill by the president has intensified and increased this dissatisfaction, and the recent county numinations of both political parties for county officers, as far as heard from, has mainly resulted in nominating court house rings, which have too long been allowed to rings, which have too long been allowed to control the honest voters of the country, thus almost destroying any hope of the people's being relieved of their heavy burdens, so far as relates to high assessments, high salaries and high taxes. Whatever may have been the origin of the call, there is no longer any doubt that thousands of the best men in the state, of both political parties, now approve of holding the convention, and are moving in the matter with hope and earnestness, and who honestly their integrity and fitness for place, and hope and earnestness, and who honestly realizing the fact that these desirable ends believe the only way to purify the country carnot be attained in Clark county under and protect the just rights of the laboring existing circumstances, by adherence to present political organizations, we therefore, respectfully invite all citizens of Clark county, ir espective of party names or affiliations, who agree with us in the foregoing detriment of labor. It cannot justly be desentiments, and who are in favor of retreachers, and reform in our county, and while it ambraces a large number of farmers. trenchment and reform in our county and while it embraces a large number of farmers, state affairs, and of the promotion of our the labor unions and nearly every other inagricultural and of the promotion of our the labor unions and bearly every other agricultural and other industrial interests, dustry bave, through their representatives, to meet in mass convention at Charlestown, signified their approval and intention of on Saturday, the 30th day of May, 1874, fer joining their fortunes with the farmers. And the purpose of nominating candidates for why not? They have a common interest, the various county offices to be filled at the and there should be harmony of action. ensuing October election, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before such convention. We stronger. It demands its "pound of further suggest that the people favorable to flesh," while the industries of the country a citizens' reform ticket meet in their re-spective townships on Friday, May 29, for the purpose of selecting five men in each unrewarded. Instead of progress, developtownship, who shall constitute a nominating ment, and prosperity, we have stagnation committee, and shall report a ticket for the and general prostration of business. bebecause monopolies, high salaries, and high quired to purity politics and bring about taxes have fastened themselves like vampires upon the vitals of the country. Politicians may demur and officeholders protest, but the people, without respect to party, are determined to elect none but competent, Nelson Huckleberry John Deadrick, W. H. McCoy, L. C. McCormick, honest and faithful men, who will regard the interests of the laboring and producing classes, and who will see to it that jus-tice is done to all. There is scarcely a county in the state, we do not care which party is in the majority, that is without its court-house ring, which is a curse to the people. They have literally eaten out our sub-stance; they have grown rich on money rung from the hard toil of labor. Our heaviest D. S. Weir, James Kirkpatrick, Thos. McCormick, taxes come from county assessments, and the people demand that the men composing these rings must retire from office, and new, honest and competent men fill their places. The one term principle should be rigidly applied with very lew exceptions, and there should be a fair representation of farmers in all the public offices. Do not the farmers pay about two-thirds of all the taxes? Who has a better right to a voice in levying taxes and directing their expenditure, and in administering the government? We have no fears of the deliberate action of the people for we have an unshaken faith in their intelligence, ability and instance.

> THE JUNE RALLY. FORECASTING THE CONVENTION-WORDS OF

gence, ability and justness. Do not our sur-roundings invite the laborers and producing classes to meet together and take council for the future? Let it be understood that it is not a movement of the farmers alone, but an uprising of the people without regard to former parties. Ample arrangements have been made for substantial refreshments at reasonable prices. The sale of intoxicating liquors on or near the ground will be pro-hibited. Meetings for the election of dele-gates to the county conventions will be held in the townships on the 30th day of May, and county conventions, for the election of delegates to the state convention, on the 6th should be sided and encouraged.

It is not necessary at this late day to offer in an unhealthy and diseased condition.

Every one realizes that a remedy should be found, and that quickly. The state abounds in all the elements which should insure prosperity; a fertile soil, inexhaustible ores, extensive forests, and above all and controling all, an intelligent, industrious people.

And yet a few unserupulous demagogues, carelessly entrusted by the voters of the state with political power, have undermined the public confidence, embarrassed the productive industries and have almost deadened the public conscience. If this be borne in mind by the delegates who shall come up here on the 10th day of June, if they comprehend how much is involved in their deliberations, they will cast aside all personal considerations, and forgetting saff will attempt to restore that here need have no fear that corrupt men can secure the higher places. Secure this and we shall have men of integrity to make laws, and qually honest men to execute them. The delegates who come here should speak og or acting for themselves, but for their constituents at home. If the true men was are here will so remember and labor conscientionaly, there is nothing to fear from office seeking marplets.

Indianapolis, May 23, 1874.

THE TIDE ALL ONE WAY.

PARM NOTES OF A POLITICAL KIND-WAYNE RICHMOND, May 20.- I send you a few more names which have been procured richout effort. The enthusiasm of the people is unbounded, and had an effort been nade we might have swelled the list to more than two thousand names. The cause labored from the first to have the laboring and producing classes take a more active for the past week, which only can be part in political affairs, instead of allowing political bummers and self-seeking demagogues to do their thinking for them—and to have them select men for office who will represent them, and not allow these same demagogues to take the front seats in all the conventions, and procure their own nomi-nation and election by means of partisan machinery and the party lash. The only question between the designers of the above call and ourselves is simply that of the means to accompish the end sought. We thought perhap the purpose could be accomplished within the two old parties, and without attempting a third. We believed all that would be res third. the forming of platforms and selection of candidates by the people themselves at the regular conventions of their respective parregular conventions of their respective par-ties. But to this plan the objection is raised that the producing classes are divided be tween the two parties by no real question o principle, and that while their interests are uniform, the maintenance of the old party lines would cause men to remain opposed to each other whose true interests were identical, and whose efforts and votes aboutld be paided for their common interest

Indianapolis Sentinel which is perhaps parof June meeting as a piece of news. The Journal didn't know anything about it, and hinted darkley that the Sentinel, Dave Gooding and a few more agriculturists had cooked up the whole thing. The Sentinel stoutly maintained its ground, and the other day its adversary formally recognized the situation. It admits that "the farmers' convention on the 10th of June may be largely attended." That is glory enough. There is to be a farmers' convention, and the Sentinel is avenged. There is indeed no room to doubt that there will be a movement of some kind, and

Whatever may be the difference of opinargument in proof that there is work for such a convention to do. I doubt whether you can find an intelligent man in the state who does not know that the body politic is in an unhealthy and diseased condition, Every one realizes that a remedy should be

NELLIE'S DAY.

enches of the peace, or to fearer immor-

THE GRANDEUR OF THE els at WNUPTIAL SCENE.

ALL THAT WEALTH OR BEAUTY nego edi nolnigCRAYES! tadi elale ere

HE WHITE HOUSE WEDDING-DETAILED

A special to the Chicago Times goes over the Sartoris wedding scene in detail: The guests present were in groupes at both ends of the room, while ribbons being statshed across the room from each side the dais, leaving the space open from the wide double more than two thousand names. The cause is growing, and "old Wayne" will respond to the call at the ensuing state election in a manner that will make all who love to see the affairs of a government honestly and economically administered rejoice.

James Smeleser.

O. W. Coggenalt.

J. A. Stradle.

Wm. Elliott.

Norris Jones.

Jacob Graham.

George Coole.

Benjamin Hill.

A. Grimes.

Henry L. Hill.

Wm. Davenport.

E. F. Ogborn.

James Fndaley.

H. Scarce.

Ezra lis.

Edmund Williams.

James Toney.

Martin Coffman.

John Raper.

Wm. Chambers.

J. P. Grimes.

Michael D. Wagner.

M. D. McClure.

Wm. Chambers.

J. P. Grimes.

Michael D. Wagner.

M. C. C. Davidson.

E. S. Vandike.

Readers of the News do not need to have us repeat nowthat the purposes of the above call have our hearty sympathy. We have labored from the first to have the laboring

Minn State of united case, which looked like a three-story bride cake, which looked like a th

IN A STATE OF UNHEAVAL likened to the commotion in a secluded village when a prominent church member is lage when a prominent church member is read out of meeting; for be it known that the larger proportion of the Washington aristocracy has been read out of meeting—or, what is worse, left out of the white house wedding. It has caused a feeling of inward satisfaction, however, for everybody left out has been put straight into the possession of a grievance and a topic of conversation, which you know, are a great blessing to society; and a kind providence has interfered to prevent even those not read out of meeting from feeling unhappy that they are behind their neighbors in the matter of a grievance, by allowing the dressmaker to the bridesmaids to be an unniti-gated aggravation. The bridesmaids are all moments at the table, and when the guests the forming of platforms and selection to candidates by the people themselves at the regular conventions of their respective parties. But to this plan the objection is raised that the producing classes are divided be tween the two parties by no real question opiniciple, and that while their interests are uniform, the maintenance of the old party lines would cause men to remain opposed to each other whose true interests were identical, and whose efforts and votes should be united for their common interest.

There is a hilarity in the columns of the Indianapolis Sentinel which is perhaps per-and yet the diplomats, with the exception above noted, were not asked to do honor to the occasion in any dress. There is something absolutely sublime in such lofty independence. There was great trouble in arranging a program for the grand entree of the bridal procession. In the rehearsal beforehand, each individual balked and got into the wrong place, and it was at one time thought they would have to rehearse this morning several times before the final performance; in which case Dr. Tiffany, of the Meptropolitan Methodist church of this city, the officiating elergyman, would have fad to shoot them on the fly, as it were, promptly reading the marriage service the moment he found them in proper position. Fortunately, however, all went smoothly this morning, and, as proverb hath it, "merry as a marriage bell." The ceremony, as stated, took place in the east room. Eleven o'clock was the hour designated, and the affair was about as prompt as marriage ceremonies usually are. The bridal party, having assembled up stairs, descended by the private stairway, and proceeded down the hall in rolved in their deliberations, they will cast saids all personal considerations, and forgetting self will attempt to restore that harmony as between man and man, between class and class, which is a first essential to make all prosperity. It is not that they will have coase here to nominate state officers. The state grange, in a letter to the Sentiphia and to pledge their constituencies of first duty is to decide upon a wise public colling and to pledge their constituencies in nequivocally to its support. The reform we savek cannot be had from the governor's commence in the local precinct, and the first duty. It is not a "bogus convention," as the Republic commence in the local precinct, and the first duty is to decide upon the bedge of farmers, as represented at work to be done is at the primary ballot box. Set the people to thinking and to voting conscientiously and intelligently, and we shall have goed local officers to execute the laws and to inspire the people with respect for the rought of the state of the conscientiously and intelligently, and we shall have goed local officers to execute the laws and to inspire the people with respect for the rought of the consciention. The reform we first they will be conclusively demonstrated the 10th laws and to inspire the people with respect for the rought of the people to thinkings and to voting of their strength and the justness of their of the cuestion, Secure this, and our of their strength and the justness of their of the cuestion. Secure this, and our of their strength and the justness of their worther adorned with reading and to voting of the region of the cuestion of the entire the people with respect for the rough and the first was not to please the form the first duty is to decide upon a wise public flower whites the wind radius of the cuestion of the cuestion of the state, and not a "bogus convention," as the Republication of the people to thinkings and to voting of the state, strong in numbers, limited the people to thinkings and to voting of the state of

WHOLE NUMBER 1,752

A high boddies, trimmed with see and flowers; a veil of tuile, and a wreath handsome ornaments compisted the toilet. The bridesmaids, after the pulling out and petting down o ceedingly well in them. They were of white silk, with plisses of tulle in front, pushings at the back, and sashes of white allk, canght together with sprays of flowers. Four bridesmaids wore bine and four pink flowers. High waists of tulle were arranged over low silk silk and point lace as at first intended, but leaving the space open from the wide double doors to the dais, which is opposite. The dress was very handsome and becoming. The trimmings were likes, and a half wreath of pansies across the entire breadth, extending the left side. Where the sash comof pansies across the entire breadth, extending to the left side, where the sash commenced. The bodice was high and trimmed with jet. Among the other toilettes were the following: One of the most elegantly dressed ladies present was Mrs. Potter Palmer, of Chicago. She were a white silk, embroidered in lilies. Her diamonds were superb. Lady Thornton laid aside her mourning for the occasion, and were violeteolored silk, wish white lace. Sir Edward Thornton were the Order of the Bath ward Thornton wore the Order of the Bath, Mrs. Serator Conkling wore gray silk and overdress of black lace. Mrs. Nenstor Chandler also dropped her black and were a lilac silk, with jet ornaments. The ladies all looked very elegant. The bridal party, after the congratulations were over, passed out to

ORANGE BLOSSOMS

> THE BREAKFAST, -where the bride cut the cake-the menu of which was as follows: WEDDING RECEPTION, PRESIDENTIAL MANSION,

MAY 24, 1874. Gateaux garnis de craq and champignous, sauce a la creme. Croquettes of chicken with green peas.

Cotelettes of enicken with green peas.
Cotelettes d'agneau, sance a la Tartar.
Aspic de langues de bouf a la modern Woodcocks and suipes on toast, decorated.
Broiled spring chickens.
Balade, sance Milanaise.
Strawberries with cream.
Bridge care contervione

Bride cake centerpiece. Gateaux de Trois Freres, ep graphe en fleurs de Nellie Grant.

Pudding a la Nesseirode, sauce a la creme.
Corbeils d'oranges, garnis de fraise geles,
Elanemange, a la Napoleon.
Plombiers, garnis de fruits et fleurs glaces.

Water ices of various flavors.

Water ices of various flavors.

Small fancy cakes.

Punch a la Romaine. Coffee and chocolate.

estate, England, but expect to make fredonable. It was the first to announce the and General Dent's daughter, complete the quent visits to the bride's parents in this great new departure among the farmers of number. In the meantime, as I intimated, country. Mr. Algernon Charles Frederick the state. It publishes the call for the 10th society has been builing over ever since the Sartoria is heir to quite a handsome proportion of June meeting as a piece of news. The invitations were issued. Not a hundred peoperty, his father having a good estate near ple in Washington were invited; and, while it Southampton, England, and a large income. Journal didn't know anything about it, and hinted darkley that the Sentinel, Daye Gooding and a few more agriculturists had cooked up the whole thing. The Sentinel stoulty maintained its ground, and the other day its adversary formally recognized the situation. It admits that "the Iammer's convention on the 10th of June may be largely attended." That is glory enough. There is to be a farmer's convention, and the Sentinel is avenged. There is indeed no room to doubt that their will be amorement of some kind, and it is pretty evident that it will be antagonistic to the present order of things. But it is impossible to predict at this time the precise scope of the action which will then be taken. The wily ones are at fault for once.

CALCULATING CHANCES.

From the Evansville Journal.

It is pretty evident that the democracy will take ground in favor of a license law, but the republicans cannot do so without a bolt of the temperance element. Indeed, the party is in a strait betwirt two, If it endorses the Baxter law, a large part of the cores the content of the core, and covered with invalidations, had met and resolved that. in order to do Southampton, England, and a large income. Mrs. Sartoris leaves her native country with crepe lisse, and a court train of white silk, brocaded with white and purple lilac blossoms and pink moss rose buds at the left side. Extending entirely around the train is a wreath of the same flowers. Then there CAUTION AND COUNSEL.

To the Editor of the Sentinel:

Sir: It is now evident that the 10th of June will be a memorable day in the political history of Indiana. Whatever the circumstances attending the issue of the call, it was evidently well timed, since it is meeting prompt response. The people were ready and waiting. They are comprehending, too, that whether the convention was called in the interest of individuals or cliques for the promotion of illegitimate schemings, or for the purposes which the language of the call is et of the purposes which the language of the call is et of the purposes which the language of the call is et of the purposes which the language of the call is et of the purposes which the language of the call is et of the purposes which the language of the call is to easy the least of it. It will be a case where the other, that every section of the state should be represented by its should be represented by its state should be represented by its should be represented by its state should be represented by its should be represented by its state should be represented by its should be represented by its state should be represented by its account of the marriage, says: "The marriage has taken place sooner than was intended at first. The preparations for the wedding have been on the most magnificent scale. The trousseau was mostly selected in New York city, as the time would not permit of a full order being sent to Paris; but the laces were selected abroad and exceeded in beauty any; thing ever seen here. There are two complete sets—one of white lace, and the other black. This is the munificient gift of the president to his daughter. The bridal dress is of the richest white satin, with a train three yards long. Around the bottom of the dress is a flounce of satin about three inches assembled up stairs, descended by the private stairway, and proceeded down the hall in

THE FOLLOWING ORDER:

Mr. Sartoris and his best man, Colonel Fred Grant, amid the strains of the "Wedding March," advanced to the foot of the dais, where the Rev. Dr. Tiffany awaited the bride. Miss Conkling and Miss Frelinghuysen were the first of the bridesmaids to arrive. They paused just after passing the center of the room. Miss Porter and Miss Sherman advanced beyond them; Miss Sherman advanced beyond them; Miss Sherman advanced beyond them; Miss ress is a flounce of satin about three inches